

“A Child’s Eye View of the UNCRC”, published by the Hong Kong Committee on Children’s Rights, is the first child friendly version of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child. It is the fruit of a wonderful partnership between adults and children. Through a language that is easily understood by children, pictures and 12 story lines, the storybook helps children to learn about their rights and responsibility with enjoyment.

“A Child’s Eye View of the UNCRC” will be distributed freely to all schools and agencies. If you wish to obtain a free copy, please contact us at 2324 9782 or hkccr@childrenrights.org.hk.
